

BIO

MARCH takes influences from rock and punk to give their songs a raw edge, a catchy twist and a positive message. This Dutch/Belgian quartet's goal: making you go harder, drive faster and shake the dust off your bones, all while painting a huge grin on your face. Singer Fleur's raw voice might remind you of Brody Dalle in the Distillers' heydays. Mixed with an overload of crispy guitar riffs and a high octane rhythm section you get the most intense live show this side of The Bronx. With +150 shows under their belt, MARCH has become a well-oiled live machine that thrives on stage.

"As expected, instruments are being manhandled, but the raw edge on the vocals adds a unique twist to the whole. The added bits on lead guitar fit in perfectly with the punk vibe of the music." - www.smashpress.nl

"MARCH grabs you by the throat. In some ways, the formation reminds us of Hole, but other bands cross our mind. We don't get much time to mull it over since there's so much to see on stage." - Rockportaal.nl

White Russian Records (NL) released both their EP 'In the air' (2014) and debut album 'Stay Put' (2016). Since the critically acclaimed release of the latter, MARCH has taken Western Europe by storm: the band toured around NL, BE, FR, DE and the UK, was invited to Popronde 2017 and topped off 2018 with an appearance on national radio 3FM and slots on summer festivals Jera on Air, Brakrock (BE) and Punk Rock Holiday (SLO).

"Going crazy on a fine piece of authentic punkrock... Catchy hooks and ditto vocals made me play the tracks at the unholyest of times. Like a neurotic junk soothing himself with the thought: Just one more, and everything will be OK again." - www.nmth.nl

"MARCH do not do anything wrong on Stay Put. The whole thing sounds solid, driving and simply loud: honest punk rock'n'roll ..." - Dx-fanzine.de - 7/10

"With Stay Put, MARCH delivered 12 songs for people who like their punk raw, well thought out and especially loud." - rockxxl.com - 8/10
